

Quarterly Report: January 2020 – March 2020
Expanded Learning Opportunities Program
Susan Johnson, Traip Academy

Online Learning

20 Traip Academy students are taking online classes
3 Shapleigh students are also taking online classes

Early College

3 students are taking early college classes through YCCC and University of Maine

Internships

4 students are working with community mentors in the workplace pursuing their personal interests. The reduction in internships second semester is the result of seniors picking up Senior Seminar.

Grant Related Activities

Department of Defense Education Activities (DoDEA) Grant in all three schools. Focus is on supporting the transitions of military and non-military connected students by educating staff, students, and parents about the importance of social and emotional health.

Mitchell School

1. eS2S – meeting regularly
2. Mike Anderson- meeting with staff regularly on social and emotional strategies in the classroom.
3. Tell Me a Story is a literacy program developed as a parent engagement strategy. Three of four Tell Me a Story programs have been implemented: January – 52 students and their parent(s) attended
February – 36 students and their parent(s) attended
March – 30 students and their parents(s) attended
April 16th will be the last TMAS with the Commander of the Shipyard scheduled to be the guest reader.

Shapleigh School

1. JS2S – meeting regularly
2. Mike Anderson- meeting with staff regularly on social and emotional strategies in the classroom.

Traip Academy

S2S- meeting regularly.

MELMAC Grant – Leadership team is looking at strategies to personalize the college and post secondary search process for students.

Participating in a statewide discussion with other MELMAC grantees regarding Gallup Student Poll data from the last three years. Gallup Student Poll measures: student engagement, hope for the future, college and career readiness, entrepreneurial mindset.

Grants now being pursued:

School Violence Prevention Program (SVPP) from Department of Justice COPS program. Working with Officer Durgin and Facilities Director Mark Everett to determine need in relation to the district Crisis and Emergency Management Plan.

Department of Defense Education Activity 2020 grant is open. These monies could continue to build on the social and emotional work the 2016 DoDEA grant has funded. In addition, there opportunity to build on project based learning and career readiness to build a STEM workforce.

Grant received from RdB to fund project based learning and place based learning opportunities aligned to the 21st century learning expectations for Traip Academy students.